Jörg Herz:
Sculpture "Act I in mirror" (2022)

€1,980.00

The figure of a naked woman conveys the feeling of self-confidence and self-knowledge . The act of looking at herself in the mirror can be seen as a symbol of introspection and self-examination, suggesting that the woman in the sculpture is satisfied with her body and identity. Ultimately, the sculpture shows that nudity can be a symbol of strength and empowerment rather than vulnerability or objectification. The confident posture of the woman in the sculpture, combined with her ability to view herself from behind, suggests a level of self-awareness and acceptance that transcends traditional notions of beauty and sexuality. The sculpture can be seen as a celebration of the human body and the power of self-reflection. Unique / figure about 55 cm high / with base 68 cm high / spruce and acrylic paint / wood sculpture work with the chainsaw.
