Mark Hellbusch: Picture "Field of Mars CXXVII" (2023)

€590.00

Marsfeld CXXVII is a fascinating abstract painting (50 x 33 cm) that captivates with its harmonious combination of texture and color. With layered paint residues that create an organic and sand-like surface, the work conveys a sense of calm and movement at the same time. The earthy base tones are complemented by bright accents of blue, red, yellow and green, creating a dynamic composition. This artwork from the Mars Field series stands for transformation and minimalism and is a symbol of artistic renewal through sustainable materials.
