Mark Hellbusch:
Picture "Mars Field CXI" (2019)

€500.00

Mars Field CXI is an abstract painting in the size 24 x 30 cm that fascinates with pink and pastel tones and a lively texture. In the center, a collection of paint residue rises like a crater from the finely textured surface. Inspired by geological formations and the idea of transformation, this work combines modern abstraction with the power of natural elements. Ideal for small spaces and contemporary collections.
