Mark Hellbusch: Picture "Claim 1 - beautiful, experimental painting" (2019)

The painting "Claim 1," created by Mark Hellbusch in 2019, measures 120 x 110 cm. This work is characterized by a lively and dynamic composition. The surface is covered with numerous splashes of paint, which flow downwards in vertical strips. The color palette includes yellow, red, blue, purple and white, which are interwoven in complex patterns. The dense structure of the splashes of color at the top and the larger, more prominent drops at the bottom create a depth effect that draws the viewer into the painting. Overall, the painting radiates an intense vibrancy and energy.
