Mark Hellbusch: Picture "Claim 132" (2024)

"Claim 132" is a vibrant, round painting with a diameter of 80 cm, which was created in 2024. The dynamic color palette of pink, green, yellow and red creates an intense, almost floral effect on the canvas. The colors are distributed in pulsating drops and splashes, making the picture look like an abstract, blossoming landscape. The round shape of the work lends it a harmonious aura and draws the viewer's gaze into its depths. The experimental painting technique makes the surface appear almost three-dimensional and the layers of color seem to dance with each other, lending the artwork a special liveliness. The pink background highlights the colorful accents and creates an exciting interplay that further enhances the dynamics of the picture.
