

Ilona Schmidt: Picture "Freedom within the framework" (2024)

€500.00

This title plays with the idea that you can retain your own individuality despite a frame. The portrait invites the viewer to reflect on this idea that we should not allow ourselves to be squeezed into prefabricated frames. Rather, it encourages us to celebrate our own identity and be authentic. The use of the embroidery hoop reinforces this message by symbolizing the tension between the ordered and the unconventional. The graphic, painted on high-quality canvas with acrylic paints, is presented in a traditional embroidery frame, creating an interesting connection between classic craftsmanship and contemporary art. Signed and dated.
