

Kerstin Forster: Picture "Waves always find their shore (4)" (2023)

€550.00

This work suggests a mountain landscape, tells of heat and glowing paths. The works from this series are characterized by light days by the sea, tell of waves and wind, heat and sultriness, lightness, exuberance and self-forgetfulness. All works were created on acid-free 300g Hahnemühle watercolor board with an underpainting of acrylic, followed by oil paints oil paints. The works are signed and dated on the back and can be delivered framed on request at an additional cost.
