€2,400.00

A heart-warming scene from days long gone: an antique children's stove from the Heiliger company. The patinated metal parts radiate a familiar warmth, as if they themselves had taken part in countless cooking adventures. Carefully placed tomatoes lie on the stove in their vibrant colors. The picture tells of summer harvests and playful kitchen experiments and keeps alive memories of the innocent happiness of days gone by. The retro wallpaper in the background completes the picture of a sheltered childhood and tells the story of decades gone by. Every detail becomes a key that opens the door to a world where time seems to stand still and the light-heartedness of childhood has been captured in every brushstroke - a warm wave of nostalgia floods through the heart, reminding us of the magic of simple pleasures and the unconditional joy that lies hidden in the little things in life.
