

Carolina Villagra-Roth: Picture "Between the flowers" (2022)

€1,850.00

Birds are a subject I love to work on. It's their different species, their colors, their tireless singing, their movement and speed. It just captivates me to try to capture all of that. With hummingbirds, I've created a few variations of different sizes. I am fascinated by this bird, which is also part of my past, my home, my other life, my childhood in Santiago de Chile. It is an expressive painting, with happy colors, flowers and a blue sky to see. It is a very positive painting. It is not framed, but has a hanging system. The side edges of the painting are also painted.
