

Ute Meyer: Picture "Red lobelia and willowherb" (2023)

€650.00

I painted this picture at the pond in my garden in August. I was fascinated by the radiant red lobelia next to the delicate, red-purple willowherbs and their reflection in the water. I captured the light impressionistically with bold brushstrokes. The picture shows the special mood of a late summer's day with its bright colors. The edges are white. A steel wire was used for hanging and my signature is on the front of the picture.
