

Anne Samson: Picture "Roses over roses" (2022)

€1,300.00

It's a golden day, the sky is clear blue, copper and rust-colored leaves adorn the trees. Wine shines in burgundy red, fresh, cool air outside. This is the wonderful fall. I have captured all this in this picture. Warm colors dominate here, combined with a bit of cold blue, resulting in an exciting composition. The dancing flowers are reminiscent of roses and ranunculus, they seem to float in space. A very pretty, cheerful depiction. The entire format is full of stylized roses right up to the edges.
