Michael Krähmer:
Picture "Deep insight VIII" (2014)

€5,700.00

The picture is painted using the time-consuming resin oil glazing technique of the old masters. Transparent oil paint mixed with dissolved resin is glazed with a brush in many wafer-thin layers, creating shimmering, almost three-dimensional color spaces. The creation of such a painting takes up to a month. The view over an archipelago landscape in the evening radiates a clear and calm atmosphere in which the soul can lose itself in imaginary expanses and thus escape the hectic pace of everyday life and come to rest.
