

Bea Schubert: Picture "Butterfly No.7" (2022)

"Butterfly No.7" is 70 cm high x 100 cm wide and on canvas. It is 4 cm deep. It is mixed media (acrylic, neon paint, neon pastel chalk, neon paint and acrylic ink). It belongs to the Butterfly series. Butterfly No.1 is inspired by Mariah Carey's song "Butterfly". When asked what she was inspired by for this song, she said: "Butterfly is about leaving a stage in my life and entering a new stage." The butterfly represents freedom, joy, the lightness of being and playfulness. But it also symbolizes change and transformation. The artwork is finished on high quality canvas. It has countless glazes. It is ready to hang. The sides are painted and so no frame is needed. It is finished with a glaze (Lascaux), which allows protection from UV light. The signature is on the bottom right and on the back.

Product link: <https://www.artsolitaire.arsmundi.de/en/bea-schubert-picture-butterfly-no7-2022-a1000110778/>