

Beate Garding Schubert: Picture "The Show Must Go On No.9" (2022)

€3,200.00

My abstract series "The show must go on" is inspired by Freddie Mercury's (Queen) song. The song came out a week before his death. "Show" he used as a symbol of life, what we should enjoy and continued by those who remain behind. Mercury knew he was going to die. He fought to the end. This powerful artwork is a statement for life. It is painted on a white background. framing is not required. The painting also has a varnish to protect it from UV light. A powerful image with a meaningful statement: The Show Must Go On!

Product link: <https://www.artsolitaire.arsmundi.de/en/beate-garding-schubert-picture-the-show-must-go-on-no9-2022-a1000113053/>