

Karin Döring: Picture "LICHTGESTALT XXVIII [28]" (2025)

Medium: acrylic, relief structure, gilding with 24-carat gold leaf This yoga art work from the LICHTGESTALT series radiates an impressive energy that symbolizes light, elegance and vitality. Inspired by the asana Ushtrasana, it shows the powerful elegance of a yogic posture. In this LIGHT SHAPE, I have used a relief structure to give the depiction a special depth and dynamism. The background is worked in flowing shades of bordeaux, copper and brown. The golden structures dance across the canvas like flowing light and lend the work a fascinating radiance. They capture the essence of grace and strength symbolized in the yoga posture Ushtrasana - a posture that stands for openness, devotion and unshakeable energy.
