€500.00

This drawing captures the sensuality and relaxation of a nude woman sitting cross-legged on a bed with her hands resting gently on her ankles. Soft light against the light envelops her figure, allowing her long, wavy hair to fall and revealing her gently sloping profile, which radiates a quiet melancholy and serenity. The subtle interplay of light and shadow emphasizes the elegance of her curves, while the delicate white of the sheet subtly highlights her form. The composition conveys an intimate calm, inviting the viewer to capture the natural beauty of the moment and celebrating the gentle grace of the female figure.
