

Ilona Schmidt: Picture "Lovemachine" (2022)

€1,700.00

The title "Lovemachine" refers to the theme of the image, which represents an exaggeration of online dating. The image conveys a certain ambivalence between the desire for love and the feeling of alienation and artificiality associated with this type of dating. It shows the contradictions associated with the search for love and human closeness in the modern world. The background of the image is deep blue, which has a calming effect and brings the face to the foreground. Various graphic elements such as triangles, circles and hearts are arranged around the face and convey a certain playfulness. Painted on extra deep 4 cm canvas with acrylic and oil pastel
