

ART Christa Haack: Picture "seductive nature 4" (2023)

€1,800.00

This artwork is a multicolored abstract original painting in which only blue, white, beige and rust contrast one after the other. Color formed with palette knife in organic shapes and forms. I later added more white paint in swirling motions to fill the piece with bold brushstrokes and action! Additional Information: All of my artwork is on durable, stretched and triple primed gallery quality cotton canvas and can be hung immediately as contemporary wall art or contemporary interior design. I include a certificate of authenticity detailing the materials used and when the painting was completed. Fine, high-quality materials such as Lascau products and UV protective varnishes for sun protection are used.
