

José Bifano: Picture "Substancia" (2023)

€600.00

"Substancia" is a painting inspired by the idea of a primordial substance that gives origin to the materiality of all things in the cosmos. The image transports us to a primitive and mysterious universe that gradually takes shape, defining the existence of everything around us. The painting invites us to reflect on the origins of life and existence itself. Its atmosphere is enigmatic and evocative, with dark and light tones, and loaded with textures that suggest the complexity of its metaphysical spirit. This artwork was created using my own technique, which uses toilet paper as a support. In its creation, I used acrylic paints, glue, toilet paper, and water.
