

Jörg Herz: Sculpture "Delivery service II" (2022)

€1,480.00

The sculpture shows a bicycle courier like those found in many cities. The artwork illustrates the tension between the desire for instant gratification and the importance of the quality of going shopping yourself. The sculpture encourages the viewer to reflect on the impact of prioritizing speed and convenience over quality and sustainability. It is intended to encourage the viewer to go to the weekly market and experience the joy of shopping for themselves by looking, smelling and touching. / figure approx. 52 cm high / with base 76 cm high
