

Ute Meyer: Picture "Water lilies" (2023)

€1,500.00

This painting was created in my own garden as a plein air painting. It captures the fleeting interplay of light and water with spontaneous, bold brushstrokes. The water lilies stand out against the dark leaves and water with their bright pink and white tones. The application of paint is expressive and dynamic. The painting ground consists of a black canvas to make the colors glow. The edges are black. A steel wire serves as a suspension. The signature is on the front.
