

Frederic Paul: Picture "By the Sea Mini I" (2024)

The artwork "By the Sea Mini I" abstractly depicts the calm and moving power of the sea. With soft blue tones mixed with warm, earthy nuances, the work captures the harmony between water and sky. It is reminiscent of waves and creates a feeling of flowing movement and transience. The delicate colour transitions lend the work a dreamy atmosphere, while the arrangement of the shapes symbolizes the permanence of nature.

-Artwork: 30x30 cm -Artwork with object frame: 52x52 cm -The work can be hung immediately -The artwork is on canvas, framed with a passe-partout in a timeless white wooden object frame behind glass -Two layers of transparent UV varnish protect the artwork
