

Ing. Buchberger: Picture "The Mississippi musician "Dege Legg" alias Brother Dege" (2023)

€3,950.00

In May 2022, I saw this unusual musician "Brother Dege" with his Mississippi sound for the second time. With his expressive dobro playing, the singer/songwriter describes the dark side of life. In addition to delta blues, indie, southern rock and psychedelic also flow into his music and make a concert a special experience. The three acrylic paintings that I wanted to have signed at his next concert in April 2024 are also from the live concert in 2022. THESE THREE PICTURES ARE LIVE MOMENTS THAT CANNOT BE SEPARATED. Anyone who has seen the film "Django Unchained" by director Quentin Tarantino may remember the title song "TOO OLD TO DIE YOUNG". Probably the most famous song of his career to date. Now, just before his next concert tour to Germany, the sad news. The songwriter, journalist and author "Brother Dege" passed away on March 8.
