

Robert Hettich: Picture "Portal into the unknown" (2025)

€4,700.00

A painting that immerses the viewer in a world of mystery and discovery. The central element of the artwork is a large arc of light that functions as a symbolic portal. The abstract shapes and lines surrounding the portal appear to be in motion and create a tension between order and chaos. The "Portal into the Unknown" invites the viewer to look beyond the boundaries of the visible and embark on a journey into undiscovered worlds. It is a work that arouses curiosity and stimulates the imagination by exploring the possibilities of the unknown and the fascination of mystery.
