

Sabine Schramm:

Picture "Rose Flowers Blossoms | Blossom (movement no. 221002)" (2022)

The flowers in her garden mean a lot to the artist - especially hydrangeas, roses, or rhododendrons, irises and the first flowers and blossoms in spring are a constant source of inspiration for her paintings. Each work is created either directly in her garden or from her strong visual and emotional memories, and her associated impressions are as integral to the painting as the shapes, colors, and especially the light. The artist works primarily with oil on canvas or wood, with the highest standards of overall quality.
