Marje:
Picture "Zero" (2022)

€3,520.00

Beginning... The images are abstractions that are firmly rooted in nature and arise from an inner sensation, palpable and yet indescribable. The fascination of her painting the artist passes on to the viewer, who is looking for a source of inspiration and energy. Capturing energy are aspects that dominate in Evgenija Koch works. Art is a big concept that can be analyzed and defined in different ways and from different points of view. Basically, art is created wherever a creative process ends. The work of art is a unique original. An applied layer of impregnation protects the artwork UV light and dust. On the front signed with artist name "Marje", which Evgenija Koch usually uses.
