

Thomas Steyer: Picture "Happy Places" (2022)

€6,500.00

This 120 cm x 180 cm oil painting goes through various phases in which blocks are divided into smaller and smaller pieces. Some are concrete, others dissolve into something else. On the one hand, the apparent chaos arises from conflict; on the other, it organizes itself and strives towards a desired goal. Just as life has its tangible and fleeting facets. The painting is mainly blue, with some green and various shades of red. It shows a journey of transformation in which apparent disorder gives way to order and purpose. Each brushstroke symbolizes a step in this dynamic process, capturing the essence of life's complexity and inherent urge for harmony and resolution.
