

Toni Nohe: Picture "Open horizons" (2022)

€1,600.00

This painting represents a kind of colorful landscape where the horizon expands. Many horizontal lines, many types of horizons, many paths taken, a future that looks promising because of its colorfulness and lightness. The transparencies let us look at all the layers individually, none is hidden, all harmonize, from the first to the last application of paint, all present.
