

Stanko:
Picture "April Blossom Magenta over Blue" (2017)

€3,500.00

The color power of magenta comes to the fore here. The harmony with a light blue, which contrasts and lifts the interior color, creates a special, meditative color tone. Inspired by Mark Rothko, Rupprecht Geiger and Georgia O'Keeffe The painting was now privately owned for a few years and now came back to me through a picture swap, as the collectors no longer had room for this large painting. I exchanged it for a smaller picture and so I can now offer it here again for sale.
