

Mark Hellbusch: Picture "Field of Mars CXXV" (2023)

€590.00

Marsfeld CXXV is an abstract painting from 2023 that is reminiscent of an abstract landscape with its sandy, wave-like structure. The layered slivers of color in earthy tones and bright accents of blue, red and yellow convey the impression of wind and water that have left their mark over time. This contemporary work of art combines depth, movement and harmony and invites exploration.
