

Karin Döring: Picture "LICHTGESTALT XXX [30]" (2025)

Medium: acrylic, relief structure, gilding with 24-carat gold leaf. The XXX [30] work in the LICHTGESTALT series shows the powerful asana Virabhadrasana, known as the "peaceful warrior". This yoga artwork symbolizes focus, grounding and the inner strength that is unleashed through the practice of this pose. The composition is dominated by dark, earthy tones and deep bordeaux, which lend the depiction a sensual depth. The relief structure impressively expresses the movement and energy of the figure and is cast in a fascinating light by the gilding with pure 24-carat gold leaf. The golden accents break through the depth of the colored areas like radiant rays of light, radiating warmth and energy and capturing the spiritual essence of the figure.
