

KNÖ-REI: Picture "640-FO" (2025)

€1,200.00

The myth of infinity: this dynamic composition of abstract forms and cubist influences conceals an energy that suggests movement and infinity. The small painting radiates clarity and intensity in its modernity. It invites you to think beyond the boundaries of space and time. It adds a sense of depth and contemporary elegance to a room. The work is part of a project in which I am exploring contemporary myths. This work is dedicated to space. Is everything always going faster, higher, further?
