

Beate Garding Schubert: Picture "YES No.2 - inspired by Yoko Ono" (2019)

€860.00

Inspired by Yoko Ono. John Lennon met Yoko Ono in 1966 in a London gallery where she was preparing an exhibition. Lennon marveled at Ono's sky artwork: a ladder leading up toward the sky, a glass panel, and behind it in tiny letters: YES. Yoko Ono's message is positive,- she stands for love and peace. This expressive work is 50 x 50 cm and 4cm deep. It is painted on high quality canvas. It has several layers of acrylic ink, acrylic paints, color spray and neon pastel chalk, which gives the artwork depth. The contrast between black and white tones with neon color is exciting. The panel has a delicate matte glaze to protect against UV light and dust.

Product link: <https://www.artsolitaire.arsmundi.de/en/beate-garding-schubert-picture-yes-no2-inspired-by-yoko-ono-2019-a1000113126/>