

Ute Meyer:
Picture "Jersey cow / Ærø" (2008)

€800.00

I observed this Jersey cow on the Danish island of Ærø and captured the scene photographically. The picture was taken later in my studio. The cow sticks its purple tongue upwards with relish, radiating liveliness and vitality. Her orange-brown coat forms a rich contrast to the dark gray of the muddy ground. Striking yellow markings adorn both ears. The generously and expressively applied oil paint lends expression to the painting and emphasizes the cow's characteristic features. The painted sides of the canvas complement the overall picture, and it is hung using a steel cable. My signature is on the front of the artwork.
