

Ekaterina Moré: Picture "Summer melody" - a flowist painting" (2016)

€4,504.00

Original painting/unique piece) Technique: Acrylic on canvas Size: 140 x 100cm Stretched on stretcher frame, ready to hang. A work with cubist elements. A red-haired woman plays the cello. Flowism: This work with cubist echoes is also part of her specially developed "Flowism" art style. Geometric approaches meet flowing forms that gently intertwine instead of remaining strictly separate. The central idea behind it: Everything is in motion - a perpetual flow that combines strength and lightness. The colors and lines reflect a deep connection that focuses on feminine energy and sensual expressiveness. Flowism invites you not only to look at art, but to feel it: free from rigid boundaries, open to vitality and inner resonance.
