

Marit Symalla: Picture "Kingfisher 1" (2023)

€640.00

To this acrylic painting of a kingfisher I was inspired when I went for a walk along the Spree. These small fascinating birds live there and I can always catch a glimpse or two of these wild animals. Why just animal portraits? Animals live in the moment. Exactly that fascinates me, because nowadays everything is very fast moving. Most of the time you already think of something new, while you are still doing something else. I am a lot with my dogs in nature on the road and enjoy it just a moment to pause and switch off from everyday life. Just to be in the here and now.
