

Mo Fontaine: Picture "Passages Rouges" (2023)

€3,860.00

This abstraction is defined by a field of tension: The square, into which the viewer can literally dive, provides balance and tranquility, while the color areas with their modulations and "passages" within the composition create a certain dynamism and liveliness. The color red is visually very present: it symbolically stands for power, love, passion and fire, but also for danger, rage, destruction and anger. By the way: In China, the color red has positive connotations. It is a guarantor of good luck in this culture.
