

Kerstin Forster: Picture "Spring fever (1)" (2021)

€670.00

In this expressive mixed media work on 300g watercolor cardboard I wanted to capture the cheerful light of the first rays of spring. This work seems abstract at first glance, but on closer inspection you discover a landscape, perhaps wide fields or a lake and a horizon line. Above it blows a gusty wind, represented by a strong gesture in the brush and charcoal stroke, which hides the sun's rays behind an overcast sky and lets them shine through only vaguely,. The special feature of this work is the picture-within-a-picture motif. The edge was painted first and then the actual motif was worked out. Thus, an iridescent impression of two levels was created.
