Ute Bivona:
Picture "Emerging love" (2022)

€3,200.00

A particularly expressive, wild and yet calm and beauty conveying work. Here the artist has combined her favorite colors - warm reds and pinks to a neon pink - with a neutral gray background and composed a fantastic, almost exploding masterpiece! There is a lot happening on this surface: overlapping layers, brushstrokes, scratches, graphite traces, flatly applied colors, splashes and precisely and clearly drawn lines compete and yet harmonize beautifully, so that a great whole, a coherent and dreamlike overall composition and mood emerges. Form and color surrender here to a joint dance of dreamy lightness, the scent of a flowery perfume that makes us think of a very specific happy moment when we felt seen, accepted, loved. This work is part of a wonderful series of three - whether individually or in a trio - they are similar, yet each one is unique.
