

Heike Schumann: Picture "In conversation" (2025)

€1,200.00

The artwork "In Conversation" is designed in a spontaneous and dynamic painting style, which gives the picture vibrancy. The color palette consists mainly of blue, light ochre and white. The depictions are the result of working with a studio model, blurring the boundaries between realism and abstraction. As a contemporary nude painting, it addresses themes such as intimacy, communication and humanity and invites viewers to develop their own perspective on the scene. The work is a unique piece on canvas, belongs to contemporary art, was painted with high-quality acrylic paints and is signed on both sides by the artist.
