Ulrike Langen:
Picture "PARADISE, WHERE HAS IT GONE" (2021)

€2,800.00

It is always said that childhood is a paradise. Everyone longs for it, but no one does anything to recapture it. Why don't you go back there? Why be a child again? A Tibetan proverb says, "Become like an amazed child again, discovering the world. Child discovering the world. Every moment anew." If you can be a child again, you will be be truly alive again for the first time. And as soon as you have the eyes of a child, the senses of a child senses of a child - pulsating with life - then all of life pulsates within you.
