

Anne Samson: Picture "The great blossoming" (2023)

€3,500.00

The large painting glows and radiates in all the colors of the rainbow. It is colorful and vibrant, combining a rather impressionistic technique with the expressive colorfulness of expressionism. Tulips, stylized in red, orange and yellow tones, dominate the scene. Thin layers of paint have been placed close together, inside each other, next to each other and on top of each other to create this wonderful color composition. A real eye-catcher!
