

Anne Samson: Picture "Tulip dance" (2022)

€1,500.00

What great colors! Petrol, turquoise, blue in all possible shades, a little orange and rust brown and off-white tones dominate the scene and altogether give the impression that there are numerous tulips to be seen here. They are distributed almost rhythmically over the surface and the whole thing seems musical. The flowers dance and float. There is an exquisite colorfulness, almost as if painted on silk.
