

Karin Döring: Picture "RED EARTH" (2024)

The artwork "RED EARTH" is a painting that captures the deep connection between man and nature and the essential importance of the African continent as the cradle of humanity. A longing for Africa and a reverence for its beauty and power can be felt in every brushstroke. The composition speaks of the connection with nature, the cultural diversity and the spiritual depth that the artist experienced during her journey through Africa in 2024. "RED EARTH" is a declaration of love to a continent that has deeply touched and inspired the artist's soul through its colors, people and untamed wilderness. Acrylic, gilding with pure silver leaf. The artwork is signed and dated on the back.
