

Sabrina Seck: Picture "Dynamics" (2020)

Horses are as natural to us as dogs. Their graceful appearance fascinates us again and again. But it is only when they are in motion that we recognize the play of muscles under the skin, the pride in the posture of the head. Their dynamics are incomparable. This work won the 1st place of the Art Online Award 2020 To protect the work, it was covered with a layer of acrylic-based resin, giving it a beautiful shine.
