

Martina Junker: Picture "Amelanchier ovalis 7" (2024)

€800.00

From a distance, the white flowers of the rock pear look like a white cloud. On closer inspection, you can see the pretty blossoms swaying in the gentle breeze. This buoyancy and the joy of the first warming rays of sunshine give this bright picture an optimistic, life-affirming aura. Painted, 4.5 cm wide border, ideal for hanging without a frame.
