

Gary Westall: Picture "Edwards landscape" (2018)

The inspiration for this image was provided by Edward Seago with the painting "Edge of the Copse". The artist Edward Seago is one of my favorite artists and role models. I find the way he captured the English countryside in his paintings very inspiring and beautiful. He was also very popular with the Queen Mum, Prince Philip and King Charles. Prince Philip and King Charles took lessons from him. Signed lower left, oil on linen laminated on MDF 6mm.
