

Heinz Stoewer: Picture "swinging and floating" (2021)

€500.00

Free forms swing and flow in the colors of the rainbow on special painting paper suitable for oil painting. Brushstrokes and flowing forms are distributed across the picture surface in a harmonious composition. These forms are characteristic of Heinz Stoewer's works and appear in different variations in almost all of his paintings. Here they are highlighted and placed next to each other in isolation to form an abstract composition of bright colors on a white background. The work is signed and dated on the back.
