

Lana Frey: Picture "Dancing with solar wings" (2024)

€1,700.00

"Dancing with Solar Wings" is a moment when nature and soul become a single stream of light. The girl is surrounded by bright butterflies, their wings sparkle like sun glare, filling the air with magic. She soars in this dance, reflecting the lightness and radiance of a summer day, as if dissolving in the sun's rays and the flight of her companions.
