

Heinz Stoewer: Picture "no easy decisions here" (2023)

€1,900.00

Asymmetrical shapes in various shades of red and blue are set against an iridescent light green background. The arrangement of these shapes creates recognizable lines and islands of colour catch the viewer's eye. The result is a mixture of gentle movement and calm that invites the viewer to take a closer look at this abstract composition. The asymmetrical forms, which are characteristic of the artist's entire oeuvre, are clearly noticeable. The painting was inspired by memories of walks in nature.
